Who is ECCNSW?

We are the peak multicultural organisation in NSW which supports, enables, advocates for and collaborates with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities to enable them to achieve full participation as Australian citizens.

We meet regularly with the NSW Premier, Ministers, senior government officers, police representatives and immigration authorities. We serve on high level government panels and advisory bodies and work with all the key community organisations.

Our main focus is on capacity building through advocacy, community education and community development. Areas of focus include environment, energy, housing, ageing, disability, women, youth, education, domestic violence, settlement and citizenship.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH NATIONAL AND STATE-WIDE ORGANISATIONS, WE ENGAGE A TEAM OF BILINGUAL EDUCATORS TO WORK WITH THEIR COMMUNITIES IN VARIOUS LANGUAGES.

ECCNSW Membership

- Non-for-profit
- Ethnic community organisations
- Multicultural organisations and service providers
- Refugee and migrant service providers
- Individuals.

Why join us?

With over 45 years experience in the sector, our members have a strong and enthusiastic commitment to promoting the tremendous benefits of multiculturalism to NSW.

We facilitate joint action and co-operation between ethnic communities that contributes to social cohesion. Being part of our team provides both a professional and personal benefit to its members and most of all, a wonderful feeling of knowing you are giving back to your community.

Membership benefits

- Vote and stand for election to be part of the Management Committee and Members' Forum
- Have access to cultural expertise and a large network of contacts who can assist in advocacy or public information campaigns
- Partner with ECCNSW and its members to facilitate dialogue with government, business or their sectors
- Opportunity to participate in ECCNSW abstracts and feedback to government on current issues affecting CALD communities
- Be a voice for your communities at a state and national level.
